

HORWAT TRIED TO CLEAN UP TOWN.

Began Indiscriminate Attack
on West Side This Morning.

CONSTABLE ROLAND TAMED HIM

Since Crossing the Bridge and Having Tussle With Officer, John, Has Complained of Headache—Attacked Foreigner With Pick Handle.

John Horwat went on the warpath this morning and left a trail of bruises and battered victims from Water street to the West Side lockup and back to the City Hall. He tackled the wrong man in Constable William Roland, however, and received a jolt over the head that made him dizzy for a time. He is being held in the lockup pending a hearing before Squire P. M. Buttermore for an assault upon Andy Horwat.

Horwat spent the night in a Water street lodging house. His bedfellow, awake this morning finding his trousers ripped and a roll missing that had been tied around his leg. The money counted $25. Horwat accused Horwat of the theft and received a blow across the hips from a pick handle as a consequence.

Horwat went before Squire Buttermore and swore out a "John Doe" warrant charging assault. Constable William Roland picked up Horwat on Water street and took him across to the West Side. The prisoner was obstreperous.

Once on the West Side, Constable Roland was willing to let Horwat go on his own recognizance until the time of the hearing. He released the man who immediately began a general cleaning up of the neighborhood. Louis Cohen was the nearest one to reach and before Louis knew what was going on he had received a shower of blows from Horwat. The foreigner then agreed to kick all corners. He started to carry out his threats when Constable Roland interfered and brought him across the river. While crossing the bridge Horwat made a move as if to get a knife after the officer and right there Horwat decided to show Horwat how to behave when under arrest. The lesson was evidently well taught for when the pair arrived at City Hall Horwat was holding his head and moaning lugubriously. He was locked in a cell and given time to calm down before the hearing before Squire Buttermore.

Gibbs Talked a Trifle Too Much

Charles Gibbs, a negro, talked an additional 24 hours to his sentence in police court this morning by criticizing Burgess Evans' disposition of his case. Gibbs was picked up in the Baltimore & Ohio yards late last night as he was about to board a train for Sand Patch. He told Detective Phelan he was a special railroad officer and it got him nabbed.

Burgess Evans gave Gibbs 48 hours. As he was being led back to the cells he muttered something about it not being fair justice. "Seventy-two hours for you," exclaimed the Burgess as the kick was waited to his ears. Gibbs had nothing more to say.

Officers George Francis and Joseph O'Brien were called to the West Fayette street home of James Brinkman early last evening and found James somewhat intoxicated, creating a disturbance. Burgess Evans imposed a 18 hours sentence.

Contribution Worth $500 Given Towards Fund for Damming Yough.

The movement to dam the Youghiogheny river below town for the purpose of improving sanitary conditions along the river front and providing an aqueduct for the city of Connellsville is rapidly gaining ground. Already one handsome contribution has been made towards the movement. This munificent Borough Engineer James H. Hogg, who was one of the first men to suggest damming the Yough in the manner proposed, announced that he would give a $500 lot which can be disposed of to the best advantage, the funds to go towards building the dam across the river. Other contributions are expected. Mr. Hogg's contribution was entirely voluntary.

Second Concert Made Big Hit

The second free band concert given by the Tenth Regiment Band since the erection of the band stand was applauded by an audience numbering fully 2,000 people last evening. South avenue, Carnegie avenue and other streets in the vicinity of the stand were filled with spectators. Those who could make themselves comfortable along the Carnegie Free library wall.

The lawn in the rear of the old Fourth Ward school has been fenced off and no attempt was made to trample the new grass which is just beginning to sprout. Junior John McNamee had no difficulty preventing trespassing.

The band presented six numbers and all were generously applauded. "Every Little Movement" from "Madame Sherry," was easily the most popular selection presented by the band and several encores were demanded before the audience was satisfied.

Leader John Gaeter scored well with the audience through his program arrangements. The Wright-Metzel Company took advantage of the concert to distribute printed programs which were of great convenience.

Considerable amusement was gained when a search light from the Air-Dome was flashed over the library lawn and the crowd. There was a scurry when the light revealed some dark secrets being enacted.

Paraded Down Town Attired in "Nightie"

A little girl, barely old enough to talk, created considerable amusement this morning when she paraded down town in her bare feet and attired in a "nightie." She carried a "little purse" which contained a quarter.

Dr. J. B. Woods and Thomas Jones saw the child on Fairview avenue but failed to establish an identification. Later Fire Chief J. W. Mitchell caught her on Pittsburgh street opposite Macco's store. A woman who knew the child took her to her Fairview avenue home where a badly frightened mother was relieved when the youngster was returned.

The New Federal Building in Connellsville as It Will Appear When Completed by the Government Contractors.

Although the bids for the new Federal building exceeded the appropriation available and it will be necessary to modify the plans, the appearance of the building will not be materially altered. Through the courtesy of Congressman T. S. Crago The Courier today is able to present for the first time an illustration of the building as it will appear when completed.

The main entrance of the building will be on Arch street. The illustration shows a view of the building from the Apple street side. The exterior will be constructed in gray brick, with white marble trimmings. The doors, illuminating pedestals and grates will be of bronze. The roof is to be of green tile, unless it is necessary to alter these plans in order to bring the cost of the building within the appropriation available.

The building has been planned along artistic and harmonious lines and will be one of the most beautiful, if not the most elaborate, in this section of the State.

WESTERN MARYLAND TRESTLE COLLAPSES; TWO OR MORE KILLED AND NUMBER INJURED.

Dump Train Went Down With Wreckage and Men Who Were at Work Below Were Caught in the Debris—More Bodies May Be Under the Wrecked Trestle.

Shortly before 3 o'clock this afternoon the trestle on the Western Maryland railroad over the Pennsylvania track below Fayette station collapsed, carrying down with it all the dump cars in the train. Two men were instantly killed and four seriously if not fatally injured. It is possible that this does not complete the list of dead and injured. The bodies of the two men known to be killed were recovered from the wreckage a few minutes after the accident. Four of the injured were also taken from under the wrecked trestle and cars.

A force of a score or more of men was at work under the trestle. At the time The Courier went to press it was impossible to tell whether more than the six accounted for in dead and injured had been caught by the falling timbers and dump cars.

It is not known whether or not the men killed were foreigner or English speaking men. The trestle extends across the Herd Bottom and is about 50 feet high. It was apparently substantially built.

Across it was hauled the earth and rocks that are being excavated from the side of the hill above the West Side where a steam shovel has been operating for the past two months. The dinky engine of the train that

Half Million Loss in Fire

Calls for help were sent to Chicago and Hammond, Ind., and both responded, one company being sent from South Chicago. The building was owned by the H. H. Hammond Company and leased to Chapin & Company of Milwaukee.

Cool Reception Given Pageant

United Press-Telegram.
LONDON, June 23.—What experts declare to be the finest military procession in modern history was today "royally progressed" through the central and southern portions of the city. The purpose of the parade was to give the residents of those sections the opportunity of gazing upon their newly crowned King and Queen, who again rode in their royal state coach. While from a military point of view the progress of the parade was awe inspiring, its central purpose, that of arousing enthusiasm for their majesties, fell far short of realization as did yesterday's coronation pageant. It was hoped that today's affair would find the people more responsive and to this end those in charge of the affair worked throughout the night. The sky was overcast but no rain fell, so the day was an improvement over yesterday's. The crowd was not half so large as was expected and those owning stands offered chairs at cut rates. Even at the bargain, many places were not able to fill the stands even comfortably full.

A peculiar feature of the affair was that there seemed to be more people on the streets after the procession had passed than while it was in progress. This was a holiday and the people seemed to prefer enjoying it in their own individual way, being indifferent to the display of royalty.

Post Card Tells Amount of Tax

Tax Collector H. C. Norton within the past few days has mailed tax notices to all taxpayers within the borough. The notices were sent out in the form of postal cards and included the county, State, dog and borough tax. Owing to the fact that the school duplicate has not been turned over to him, Mr. Norton was unable to include that tax on the notices. The notices were received with considerable satisfaction, as it enabled those taxed to ascertain the exact amount due without making a trip to the Tax Collector's office. The effect of sending the notices is already noticeable by the number that have already settled their 1910 borough and county obligations.

Lawn Tennis Courts are Opened

H. O. Keaggy has just completed a lawn tennis court on Greene street that is the finest in the city. The ground has been enclosed with high wire netting and much work has been spent preparing the court for the opening games which will be played tomorrow afternoon commencing at 3 o'clock. These games will be between Walter Schenk, Harold Clasper, Roger Evans and Clarence Port and Harry Mitchell, Lawrence Schick, Stewart Monroe and William Davidson. These games will be exhibition events.

Commencing Monday the tennis court will be rented at moderate rates by Mr. Keaggy and if the interest manifested in tennis on the South Side is any indication the court will not be idle much when the weather is good. The court can be reserved by telephoning or calling at Keaggy's drug store.

The tennis court behind the Y. M. C. A. has been completed and now stands ready for use. It is one of the best in the city. Almost all of the business men of the town are members, and any others wishing to join can do so for the fee is not yet entirely filled.

A meeting will be held tonight in the offices of the Y. M. C. A. All those interested are expected to be present. Rules will be considered and probably officers will be elected.

Did Dog or Nail Tear Child's Ear?

Did the little girl of E. F. Minor have her ear torn by a nail or did Spittler's dog attempt to make a meal off the auditory member? That is the question that has been put up to Officer P. M. Rull. Rull went to North avenue, in Dutch Bottom, this morning to kill the dog but will endeavor to arbitrate the matter.

The child sustained the injury to her ear last evening. The Minors blame it on Spittler's dog while the Spittler family declares the girl fell while playing and tore her ear on a nail. The question was too deep for the officer. He directed the Spittlers to keep the canine confined or properly muzzled.

Clyde Jones of East Cedar avenue yesterday killed his dog. The canine had been showing signs of going mad and Jones took no chances with a shotgun. The dog was killed yesterday.

Plenty of Time; Which is Right?

There was an argument over the correct time in police court this morning that was settled by telephone. That is, efforts were made to settle, Burgess Evans and Clark Bixler entered into a friendly argument whether the clock showed several minutes late arriving at City Hall or the Burgess was early beginning police court.

The Western Union, Bell and Tri-State operators and one jewelry store furnished the "correct" time and each varied from one to four minutes from the other. The argument hasn't yet been settled to the satisfaction of all parties concerned as every watch in the crowd at police court varied.

Company D Will Hike to Killarney

Company D will take its hike to Killarney Park tomorrow afternoon. The company will leave the Armory at 1 o'clock and has arranged to have supper served at Killarney Inn during the evening. Rations for the other meals will be carried in haversacks.

This hike is expected to give the boys good training for the approaching brigade encampment at Indiana during the latter part of July. It will also be in the nature of an endurance trip as a lively pace will likely be maintained over the dusty roads.

West Penn Reported to Have Bought An Independent Road at Monessen.

Rumor has it that a deal has been made whereby the Monessen street car line which is the property of the Webster, Monessen, Belle Vernon & Fayette City Street Railway Company has been sold to the West Penn Railway Company and that the line will be extended across the country through Perryopolis and connect with the main line of the company at Connellsville. It has been understood that quiet work has been going on for some time in the vicinity of Perryopolis having rights of way for the extension.

Such a rumor is hard to verify for a deal of such magnitude and of such importance is scarcely ever discussed for public satisfaction but it has been known for many months that the West Penn had proposed plans for development of lines through this section and it is also a fact that the towns in this section will welcome this company and give it every assistance possible to open up the country east of here.

BETTER FACILITIES PROMISED ROCKWOOD

A Merchant There Stirs Interest of President of the Road.

THOMPSON TAKES MATTER UP

And as a Result of the Visit of Officials There This Week It Is Announced a New Freight Depot Will Be Built.

By special appointment and to discuss plans with the object of improving freight receiving and shipping facilities at the Rockwood B. & O. station, Merchant Cyrus B. Moore, of New Lexington, met railroad officials at Rockwood Wednesday forenoon. For more than a year the enterprising New Lexington merchant has been demanding greater safety and more modern facilities for B. & O. patrons at Rockwood.

Mr. Moore appealed direct to President Willard, of the B. & O. railroad for such action. Considerable correspondence passed between Mr. Moore and the B. & O. executive on that important subject. More recently, four petitions representing the principal farming sections surrounding Rockwood, were circulated and signed by more than 200 people who use Rockwood as a shipping station. All these petitions corroborated Mr. Moore's statement of the hazardous and unsatisfactory freight receiving and shipping situation at Rockwood and reinforced his request for better accommodations. These communications, without exception, received prompt attention and courteous replies.

Finally the whole matter was referred to General Manager A. W. Thompson for determination. The general manager, accompanied by General Superintendent E. A. Peck and Division Superintendent C. L. French, came to Rockwood to confer with Merchant Moore and B. & O. Agent W. B. Conway. As a result of Wednesday's official conference, Rockwood will soon have greatly improved freight facilities. The officials assured Mr. Moore that a new freight depot will be erected at some safe and accessible location on the Cox's run side of the yard, where it will not require the crossing of tracks with teams when receiving or discharging freight. A suitable driveway also will be planned, which will make approach to the warehouse convenient at all times.

Hogg Working on Big Sewer Plan

Borough Engineer J. B. Hogg is busy putting the final touches on the comprehensive sewer plan which was started some weeks ago but never fully completed. While at Harrisburg discussing the sewer system with the authorities of the State Health Department, Mr. Hogg also held a consultation regarding the plans for a sewage disposal plant and new system of sewage here.

The State Health Department officials requested that the comprehensive sewer plan be filed with them at the earliest possible date and Borough Engineer Hogg hopes to have it completed within the next six weeks. He has promised the State authorities to furnish the plan by that time.

The plan shows all existing sewers and includes all the sewers that will be needed for sanitary and storm water purposes. In the future all sewer work done by the borough must be in conformity with the comprehensive plan prepared by the borough engineer.

Has Been Our Big Season

This has been the biggest season on Oxfords and Low Cuts that we have ever had. We bought more, have sold more than we ever have any other previous season. Our sizes are getting cut up somewhat and we want to clean out what is left.

Nine Days Before the 4th

Most stores wait till after the Fourth to clean up their summer goods, but we like to be first and give our trade the benefit of the low prices just before the Fourth. Most of our trade will be ready for the second pair and won't want to pay full price for them. So this sale is going to come in just right. Right at a time when you can use them. A great saving on every pair.

High Grade Goods

No better footwear sold in America than Zeigler Bros., Edwin C. Burt and Queen Quality for Ladies; Walk-Over, Banisters and Burt and Packards for Men. No better Boys and Girls footwear sold in town than the ones we sell. Parents will back this statement up every time. All to go on sale for nine days before the 4th.

THE VETERANS BARNHART'S GUESTS

Entertained With Ladies Auxiliary at Sunnyside Farm
OUT IN DUNBAR TOWNSHIP

Pleasant Evening Spent at One of the Prettiest Spots in Fayette County. Some of Those Who Were Present.

Not for several years have the members of the William F. Kurtz Post No. 104, the Union Veterans Legion and the Ladies' Circle No. 100 to the G. A. R. been so royally entertained as they were last evening when Col. and Mrs. J. J. Barnhart had them for guests at their home at "Sunny Side" farm, Dunbar township.

Col. and Mrs. Barnhart think nothing is too good for the veterans, and as soon as they arrived at "Sunny Side" the place was turned over to them. Col. and Mrs. Barnhart entertain the veterans nearly every year and very few regrets are received from those who have been there. The house, the grounds and the place was for beyond expectations. "Sunny Side" is one of the prettiest and largest farms in this section and last night it was unusually attractive. Japanese lanterns were hung from the trees, bouquets of fragrant roses adorned the tables, placed under large trees. Large and small flags played a conspicuous part in the decorations. On the arrival of the guests at the farm they were received by Col. and Mrs. Barnhart and their aides. The ladies were given such a warm and friendly welcome.

Over 100 guests were present. The earlier part of the evening was spent by the guests in going over the beautiful grounds of "Sunny Side" which took some time. Col. and Mrs. Barnhart are known for their generous hospitality and every one present was made to feel perfectly at home and nothing was left undone toward looking after their comfort and entertainment.

A jolly crowd than the veterans cannot be found. While many are aging in years, in spirit they will never grow old. The things which give more pleasure than to assemble and relate many reminiscences of the war. West Highland's drum corps was on the scene and plenty of patriotic music was rendered throughout the evening. Col. Barnhart appointed H. H. Yarnall to preside over the program, and stated that he would make no speech during the evening. Later in the evening after hearing Captain Edmund Dunn and J. R. Baisley relate several anecdotes of the war, the temptation for Col. Barnhart to tell one better was too great, and finally he told a story that was equally as interesting as the ones told by his comrades.

Col. Barnhart delivered the address of welcome in behalf of Col. and Mrs. Barnhart, and Captain Harry Dunn responded with a very neat and pleasing address. The next speaker was J. R. Baisley who occupied the platform for a short time. Mr. Baisley talked with delight in talking war and always has something of interest to relate.

Captain Edmund Dunn was then called on for a short talk. As always, Captain Dunn's talk was full of interest. He spoke of the pleasant and pleasant features of the war.

Captain Joseph Baisley was asked to speak on "The Condition of the United States and the Equipment of the Government at the Outbreak of the War." Captain Baisley left Connelville 57 years ago for the West. At that time there were no railroads in Fayette county and he walked from Connelville to Greensburg. He closed his talk by reciting several verses of poetry which he composed. Mr. Baisley was formerly located in Indianapolis and recently went to Chicago. C. H. Whitely sang "Marching Through Georgia," and Mrs. Pauline Hamilton gave a reading "The Invincible Wife." Both were well received.

Mrs. David Ritchie, president of the Ladies' Circle, gave a short talk and in closing, in behalf of the Ladies' Circle thanked Col. and Mrs. Barnhart for their invitation and hospitality. The Ladies' Circle was well represented. Conrad Tarnell suggested that the Circle hold an outing this summer and extend an invitation to the veterans, as nothing would give them greater pleasure than to attend a gathering in charge of the Ladies' Circle. The exercises were held on one of the prettiest spots on the large lawn. At the conclusion of the program an elaborate luncheon consisting of chicken and ham sandwiches, pickles, cheese, oranges, bananas, pineapple, several kinds of cake, ice cream, coffee and lemonade was served by Mrs. Barnhart and her aides. Mrs. Rita Lee of Scottsdale was an out of town guest.

The veterans present were Stewart Durbin, Company H, 112nd Regiment, Pennsylvania Volunteers; A. S. Hudock, Company D, Pennsylvania Volunteers; T. G. Evans, Company I, Sixth West Virginia Infantry; J. R. Dunham, 14th Pennsylvania Cavalry; Lot Rush, Company H, 85th Infantry; J. M. Ruff, Company B, 112th Pennsylvania Volunteers; Smith, Division Company K, Seventh Pennsylvania Cavalry; A. Drebert, Company E, Sixth Pennsylvania Artillery; J. R. Baisley, Company H, 112nd Regiment; David Ritchie, Eighth Pennsylvania

Reserve; Thomas Means, Company K, Seventh Pennsylvania Cavalry; H. H. Yarnall, Company G, 118th Regiment, Pennsylvania Volunteers; W. H. Shaw, Company H, 112nd Regiment; W. F. Clark, Company B, 112nd Regiment; J. S. Roagan, Company B, Second United States Cavalry; C. B. Whitely, Company H, 112nd Regiment; S. J. Hertzog, Company K, Sixteenth Pennsylvania Cavalry; D. J. Keslar, Company C, 8th Pennsylvania Volunteers; U. D. Snyder, Company H, 214th Pennsylvania Volunteers; J. C. Shaw, Company H, First West Virginia Cavalry; Captain Edmund Dunn, 16th Pennsylvania Cavalry; and Joseph Baisley of Chicago, a brother of J. R. Baisley, and Col. J. J. Barnhart, Company K, Seventh Pennsylvania Cavalry.

The Real Remedy for Ebbing Vitality

Half sick, tired all the time, no energy or ambition, with your nerves on edge and your stomach out of order, how can you expect to get any happiness out of life when in such a miserable state?

You can't, and you won't until you find relief from the debilitated condition that is sapping your vitality and robbing you of your strength.

Physicians know that half the population in the large cities of this country are today afflicted with nervous debility caused by the wear and tear of modern life.

A preparation has been used by European physicians to combat this nervous condition with remarkable success. A similar preparation "Tona Vita" was introduced in this country a few months ago and is making a marvelous record here. "Tona Vita" is bringing back health and happiness to thousands of listless, debilitated men and women. You owe it to your family, you owe it to yourself to let this wonderful new tonic, build you up. There is no other medicine like it on earth; one dose will eliminate any one of the "Tona Vita" doesn't do more for you than all the other medicines you have ever taken. If it doesn't make you happier and healthier and better in every way, what you pay for it will be returned to you by A. A. Clark.

Len's Rhabarb Laxative is a safe and reliable remedy, is another great medicine. It is a splendid family laxative, containing the medicinal properties of rhabarb—nature's own laxative. It will not injure the most delicate constitution and should be used for clearance above everything else. It is pleasant to the taste.

A. A. Clark has the Connelville agency for "Tona Vita" and L. A. Rhabarb Laxative.

Wants Exempted From $100 Fine

Special to The Courier.
SOMERSET, Pa., June 22.—U. S. Milton Phillips, Secretary of the White's Creek Lumber Company, operating at Confluence, has appeared to court from a fine of $100, or 100 days' imprisonment in the county jail, imposed upon him by Justice of the Peace William H. Zarnell, of Greensburg, for depositing sawdust from the company's mill in White's creek. The Justice held that the defendant violated the State fish laws which prohibit the pollution with sawdust of streams containing game fish. The defendant denies that any game fish exist in White's creek. The prosecution was made by Game Warden T. B. Whitman of Brownsville, Fayette county.

Calvin Livenwood and M. A. Snyder have also appeared from similar fines imposed by the same Justice, for polluting Cucumber run with sawdust. They deny that Cucumber run is inhabited by game fish.

Somerset Gets New Water Supply

Special to The Courier.
SOMERSET, June 23.—The second well drilled at Somerset's new water plant, just north of town, on the H. H. Water farm, was officially tested yesterday by L. E. Chapin, a Pittsburgh consulting engineer, who located the basin to be drilled. The first well he located is now supplying the entire town, and the second will be held in reserve for the annual fall drought, when it is expected the town will have an abundance of water.

The pump on the second well was started at 9 A. M. and operated until 1 P. M., producing over 200 gallons of water every minute it was running and not decreasing the production of the first well.

Forethought.
It is always wiser to thoughtfully prepare against any damage or loss than to be caught unexpectedly. Fire and burglary do not give warning. The Baker Heirs Claim Big Estate

Special to The Courier.
SOMERSET, June 23.—Alexander Casebeer of Somerset township left today for Philadelphia, in connection with the old Baker estate, supposed to exist in that city, which, it is alleged, rightfully belongs to the heirs of Col. Henry Baker, of whom Somerset county has hundreds, under the terms of a 99-year lease, whose location has always eluded the Baker heirs.

Mr. Casebeer has devoted many years to investigating the estate, attempting to force a distribution, being a direct heir himself. Now, at the age of eighty-one, but one of the youngest old men in the State, he has secured, he says, information which he will not yet divulge to the public gaze, and which is of a more promising nature than anything previously uncovered.

During the past week Mr. Casebeer has received calls from numerous Baker heirs from Somerset and adjoining counties, from the West and even from Canada, and all who have been in on the newly discovered facts and "special matter" pronounce it as conclusive proof that they will some day not far distant come into their own, the distribution of which has been delayed these many years.

CONFLUENCE.

CONFLUENCE, June 22.—Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Bird and daughter, June, are guests of friends near Johnstown for a few days.

Mrs. Theresa "Tike" returned home Wednesday evening, after a two weeks' visit with Miss Margaret McClure in Pittsburgh.

Mrs. RineSmith of Haverwood, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paxton Shipley for the past week.

Fortune Telling

Does not take into consideration the one essential to woman's happiness—womanly health. The woman who neglects her health is neglecting the very foundation of all good fortune. For without health love loses its lustre and gold is but dust. Womanly health when lost or impaired may generally be regained by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

This Prescription has, for over 40 years, been curing delicate, weak, pain-wracked women, by the hundreds of thousands, and this too in the privacy of their homes without their having to submit to painful examinations.

ONE MORE CHANCE

AS A GREAT MANY PEOPLE WERE DISAPPOINTED I HAVE DECIDED TO CONTINUE THIS WONDERFUL OFFER FOR ONE MORE WEEK BEGINNING MONDAY AND WILL FIT YOUR EYES WITH $3.50 OR $5.00 "STEVENS S. Q." GOLD FILLED EYE GLASSES FOR $1. EXAMINATION FREE. SATISFACTION GUARANTEED OR MONEY REFUNDED. PLEASE REMEMBER AM DOING THIS TO BUILD UP A PERMANENT BUSINESS. COME EARLY IN THE MORNING AND EARLY IN THE WEEK AND YOU WILL BE SURE TO GET WAITED ON.

This "Stevens" sale is an advertising proposition pure and simple—your advantage is a superior grade of goods at a special low price—my profit is making 600 new acquaintances and winning their confidence.

Stevens mountings are the best in the world—they occupy the same position in the optical trade as "Rogers Bros., 1817" do in the silver line, and "Liggett" or "Waltham" do in the watch business.

SUCH A STARTLING ANNOUNCEMENT no doubt makes you ask if it is absolutely bonafide and if so why I do it. The whole story is this: I have decided to make this unheard of sacrifice of regular $3.50 and $5.00 gold filled glasses at $1 for balance of week to gain the full support and patronage of Connelville people and thus build up an extensive optical business. The lenses are the same I sell in my regular lines, every one fully guaranteed, and I use just as much care in fitting your eyes. Difficult cases a specialty.

Headaches and nervousness and other troubles far remote from the eye are oftentimes the direct result of an eye strain which if corrected with the proper glasses would give immediate relief. It is not necessary for the eye to be sore to indicate the need of glasses. In many cases the eye may be perfectly healthy and glasses may be needed for the reasons which are only apparent to the physician and skilled eye specialist.

The Wedding Day

From the curtain of clouds,
from the tent of purple and scarlet,
Issued the sun, the great High Priest,
in his garments resplendent, Holiness unto the Lord, in letters of light, on his forehead.

Round the horns of his robe the golden bells and pomgranates.
Blessing the world he came, and the bars of vapor beneath him pleated like a grate of brass, and the see at his feet was a laver!

This was the wedding morn of Priscilla, the Puritan maiden.
Friends were assembled together; the Elder and Magistrate also graced the scene with their presence, and stood like the Law and the Gospel.

One with the sun of earth and one with the blessing of heaven.
Simple and brief was the wedding, as that of Ruth and of Boaz.
Softly the youth and the maiden repeated the words of betrothal, taking each other for husband and wife in the Magistrate's presence.

Around the Puritan way, and the laudable custom of Holland.
Perfectly then, and devoutly, the excellent Elder of Plymouth
prayed for the health and the home,
that were founded that day in ac-tation.

Speaking of life and of death, and im-

at the season of Christmas!

Great was the people's amazement,
and greater yet their rejoicing.
Thus to behold once more the sum-
burnt face of their Captain, Whom they had mourned as dead;
and they gathered and crowded
about him.

Eager to see him and hear him,
forgetful of bride and of bridegroom.

Questioning, answering, laughing, and
each interrupting the other,
Till the good Captain declared, being quite overpowered and bewildered,
He had rather by far break into an Indian encampment.

Then came again to a wedding to which he had not been invited.

Meanwhile the bridegroom went forth and stood with the bride at the doorway.

Breathing the perfumed air of that
warm and beautiful morning, Touched with autumnal tints, but lonely and sad in the sunshine.

Lay extended before them the head of tall and privation.

There were the graves of the dead,
and the barren waste of the seashore.

There the familiar fields, the groves
of pine, and the meadows;
But to their eyes transfigured, it seemed as the Garden of Eden.

Filled with the presence of God,
whose voice was the sound of the ocean.

There the familiar fields, the groves

Friends Were Assembled Together.

ploring divine benedictions.

Lo! when the service was ended, a form appeared on the threshold, Clad in armor of steel, a savior and sorrowful figure!

Why does the bridegroom start and stare at the stranger's approach?

Why does the bride turn pale, and hide her face on his shoulder?

Is it a phantom of air—a bodiless,
spectral illusion?

Is it a specter from the grave, that has come to forbid the betrothal?

Long had it stood there unseen, a ghost uninvited, un welcomed;

Over its clouded eyes there had passed at times an expression

Softening the gloom and revealing the warm heart hidden beneath them.

As when, across the sky the driving
rack of the rain-cloud,

Grows for a moment thin, and betrays the sun by his brightness.

Once it had lifted its hand, and moved
its lips, but was silent.

As if an iron will had mastered the fleetest intention.

But when were ended the words and the prayer and the last benediction.

Into the room it strode, and the people beheld with amazement

Bodily there in his armor Miles Standish, the Captain of Plymouth!

Wrapping the bridegroom's hand, he said with emotion, "Forgive me!"

Have been angry and hurt—too long have I cherished the feeling.

Have been cruel and hard, but now,
thank God! it is ended.

Alas! is the same hot blood that leaped
in the veins of Hugh Standish,

Benign, swift to repent, but as swift
in atoning for error.

Never so much as now was Miles
Standish the friend of John Ad-
den."

Thereupon answered the bridegroom:
"Let all be forgotten between us—"

All save the dear, old friendship, and that shall grow older and dearer!"

Then the Captain advanced, and, bowing, saluted Priscilla.

Gravely, and after the manner of old-fashioned gentry in England, something of oar and of court, of town and of country, contingled.

Wishing her joy of her wedding, and loudly lauding her husband.

Then he said with a smile, "I should have remembered the adage—"

"If you would be well served, you must serve yourself, and moreover,

No man can gather cherries in Kent

Soon was their vision disturbed by the noise and stir of departure.

Friends coming forth from the house,
and impatient of longer delaying.

Each with his plan for the day, and the work that was left uncompleted.

Then from a stall near at hand, amid exclamations of wonder,

Alden the thoughtful, the careful, so happy, so proud of Priscilla,

Brought out his snow-white steed,
obeying the hand of his master.

Let by a cord that was tied to an iron ring in its nostrils.

Covered with crimson cloth, and a cushion placed for a saddle.

She should not walk, he said,
through the dust and heat of the sunny day.

Nay, she should ride like a queen, not plod along like a peasant.

Somewhat alarmed at first, but reassured by the others,

Placing her hand on the cushion, her foot in the stirrup of her husband,

Daily, with joyous laugh, Priscilla,
mounted her palfrey.

"Nothing is wanting now," he said
with a smile, "but the distaff;

Then you would be in truth my queen,
my beautiful Priscilla!"

Onward the bridal procession now moved to their new habitation.

Happy husband and wife, and friends
converging together.

Pleasantly murmured the brook, as they crossed the ford in the forecast.

Pleased with the image that passed like a dream of love through its bosom.

Tremulous, floating in air, o'er the depths of the azure abysses.

Down through the golden leaves the sun was pouring his splendors.

Gleaming on purple grapes, that from branches above them suspended.

Mingled their odoriferous breath with the balm of the pine and the fir-tree.

Wild and sweet as the clusters that grew in the valley of Shual.

Like a picture it seemed of the primitive, pastoral scene.

Fresh with the youth of the world,
and recalling Rebecca and Isaac.

Old and yet ever new, and simple and beautiful always.

Love immortal and young in the endless succession of lovers.

So through the Plymouth woods
passed onward the bridal proce-sion.

THE END.

EARLY OPERATIONS IN COKE REGION.

Some Very Interesting Statistics of Thirty Years Ago.

OVENS IN THE DISTRICT

Then Totalled Only 6,680 and the Daily
Production Was Given as 8,013.
First Strike Was Inaugurated in June, 1881.

The files of The Courier, then called
The Keystone Courier, just 30 years ago contained two stories of much interest to the coke trade of today. The Connellsville region was then in its infancy. Many works that were operating then have long since become idle and others were either just being started or plans were being laid for their building.

One story in The Courier of July 15, 1881, is reprinted from the Philadelphia Press in which John S. Rittenour, afterwards a widely known newspaper man of Pittsburg and Fayette county,
told of the growth of the coke trade up to that date. Among other things he said:

"The manufacture of coke has become one of the leading industries of Southwestern Pennsylvania, and now ranks well up in magnitude and value with iron and glass. Since the panic
the development of the coking connection has been immense, and is still progressing at a rate that would astonish one unfamiliar with the vast strides which this industry has made since 1870. The financial depression arrested, in a measure, the rapidity of its growth; but with the return of good times, it leaped forward with greater vigor than ever.

"Within the past two years only,
the capacity for the manufacture of coke has been doubled. In August, 1887, the number of ovens in operation in the region was 3,000. The number of ovens today is 7,218, of which 9,688 are at active work.

"The following statistics respecting coal and coke will be concise and interesting:

Number of ovens in operation . . . 9,688

A glance at the list shows matters to be pretty evenly divided, as to the number of works in operation and these idle; but the former took up in round numbers 2,500 ovens against 2,600 for the latter.

Are Dissatisfied With the Awards

Special to The Courier

SOMERSET, June 22.—Both petitioners and defendants are dissatisfied with the awards made by viewers in the condemnation proceedings of the Manufacturers Water Company and the Johnstown Water Company Knuffman and William H. Barron, to secure rights-of-way through the defendants' farms in Conemaugh township, for the mammoth Quannaboning dam now in course of construction in the north of the county. Both sides have filed appeals from the viewers' report giving each of the defendants $2,340 damages.

The Conemaugh township agriculturists allege that the big dam will rob their farms of water heretofore secured from the Stonycreek for domestic and irrigation purposes, by drying up Borden's dam. A number of years ago the Johnstown Water Company constructed Borden's dam and laid a main to the Flood City. It is now alleged that the Manufacturers concern has leased Borden's dam, which will be abandoned because the water of the creek will be practically cut off by the construction of Que-nanaboning dam, which will be the last lake, artificial lake in the State, and that the viewers did not provide sufficient damages.

The water companies contend that the viewers' awards are too high for the reason that the farms in question will be so badly damaged by loss of water, and Stonycreek, between Quannaboning lake and Borden's dam has several tributaries which will pre-vide water sufficient for all farm purposes; in fact more water will pass
the site of Borden's dam after the same is torn away, the water concerns claim, than at the present time, because at present no water at all
time of drought.

The Yankee Dodge.

The description of the first operation
under ether in Europe as given by Dr.
F. William Cook in the University College Hospital Magazine is reproduced in the London Lancet, and the news is referred to as the "most dramatic ever enacted in which medical men grouped the stage." The operation was performed by Robert Liston
on Dec. 21, 1846. "At 2:15 Liston entered, that magnificent figure of a man
six feet two inches in height, and says,
'We are going to try a Yankee dodge today, gentlemen, for making men insensible' so Liston introduced ether to a London hospital." The subject was a man, thirty-six years old, whose thigh was amputated. The operation was successful, and Liston uttered the apologue, "This Yankee dodge, gentlemen, beats mesmerism hollow."

"The expected strike in this region took place on Monday, in accordance with the notices posted up last week.
The strike was pretty general, though some of the works continued to run steadily, among the latter the Pittsburg & Connellsville Gas, Coal & Coke works at this place, and all the Frick works, seven in number, on the Mount Pleasant Branch from Broad Ford to the Summit.

"Thus the situation remained until yesterday, when a decided movement toward the resumption of labor took place among the men, a number of works starting up, some with their full force and others with only a portion of their employees. As near as we can ascertain, the following is about
the situation:

Working. Idle.
